Dreadnought Now open till 3.30 am on Saturday Nights

The Doors between the Dreadnought and Room at the top will NO LONGER open at 2.30am.

This along with an extra half hour of drinking on a Saturday night will help some issues that were occurring in having to exit through the RATT doors after 2.30 each nite. Hopefully it will encourage you all to stay until the death instead of heading early to avoid this.

If you still want to go into the RATT you will have to enter through the main entrance and normal entry fees will apply at the RATT door.
No concessions will apply.
